UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

Alexandria Division

CALLAO INVESTMENTS, LLC,
(Formerly CALLEO INVESTMENTS LLC)

Plaintiff,

v.

DICUT, INC.

Defendant.

Civil Action No.: 1:03CV¹²²⁹1228

LMB

ORDER GRANTING WRIT OF FIERI FACIAS
AND IN AID OF EXECUTION

TO: The Undersecretary of Commerce for Intellectual Property and Director of The United States Patent and Trademark Office

This Court having entered judgment on December 18, 2003 in favor of Plaintiff Calleo Investments LLC (which subsequently changed its name to Callao Investments LLC) ("Callao") against Defendant in the amount of $403,002.50, which judgment remains unsatisfied;

Callao having filed a Motion for Writ of Fieri Facias pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 69(a) and Code of Virginia §§ 8.01-466, et seq., asking the Court to direct the Under Secretary of Commerce for Intellectual Property and Director of the United States Patent and Trademark Office ("PTO") to transfer ownership of United States Patent Application No. 10/622512, entitled "Face recognition system and method therefor," (the "Patent Application") from Defendant Dicut, Inc. (or its wholly owned subsidiary Dicut of Virginia LLC) (collectively "Dicut");

This matter having come on for a hearing in open court on June 1, 2007, and no appearance having been made and no objection having been filed by Dicut;

This court being satisfied following the hearing that good cause has been shown for the relief requested, in view of Callao's representation that the sole asset of any significant value owned by Dicut is the Patent Application, as confirmed by an Order in Aid of Execution issued by a Georgia state court in Cobb County, Georgia, on May 7, 2004, which held that the "core asset of the judgment debtor [Dicut] is a patent and/or security process known as a 'Facial Recognition Process[,]'" in plain reference to the Patent Application;

It appearing that the Patent Application will be deemed abandoned if a response to an office action is not filed on or before June 12, 2007, and Callao having represented to the Court that the attorney appointed by Dicut to handle the Patent Application has not been paid and does not intend to respond to the office action; and

Callao having represented that it wishes to respond to the office action, thereby maximizing the chance that the Patent Application will not be abandoned and that it might mature into a United States patent, through which Callao might be able to realize value sufficient to satisfy some or all of the judgment at issue;

Now, therefore, for good cause shown, it is hereby ORDERED that:

1. This Court has the authority to effect this relief pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 69(a), Virginia Code §§ 8.01-478 and 8.01-501, and the Court's inherent equitable power to enforce and grant orders in aid of its judgments. See generally McClaskey v. Harbison-Walker Refractories Co., 138 F.2d 493, 494 (3d Cir. 1943);

2. Callao has obtained a judgment against Dicut in this Court, which has not yet been satisfied but which may be satisfied in whole or in part by the transfer of ownership of Dicut's U.S. Patent Application No. 10/622512;

3. The Under Secretary of Commerce for Intellectual Property and Director of the PTO shall record this Order transferring ownership of and title to United States Patent Application, No. 10/622512, entitled "Face recognition system and method therefor," to Callao Investments LLC, and shall take such other action as may be required to recognize Callao's ownership of that patent application on the records maintained by the PTO; and

4. This Order shall be deemed to be a document affecting title to the Patent Application within the meaning of 37 C.F.R. § 3.11.

SO ORDERED.
